

Oppose violence, save Hong Kong

Thousands of protesters poured into Tamar Park in Admiralty on Saturday in a show of support for the police.

The employees of China Nuclear Energy Technology Corporation Limited actively participated in the event. They were led by CEO Mr. Fu Zhigang, Mark and CFO Mr. Wang Xiaoyang, Scott to ensure the safety of employees during the event.

The rain failed to dampen spirits as crowds flanked the perimeter of the stage from 5pm, chanting “oppose violence, save Hong Kong,” with some waving Chinese flags and holding placards that read “don’t allow Hong Kong to be chaotic anymore.”

Organisers, the Hong Kong Island Federation, said that an estimated 476,000 people attended the rally.
