

Zhao Yixin, chairman and executive director of the board of directors, went to the Hainan to conduct research

On May 17, 2021, Zhao Yixin, Chairman and Executive Director of China Nuclear Energy Technology Group Co., Ltd., went to China National Venture Capital Private Equity Management (Hainan) Co., Ltd. (formerly China National Nuclear Investment Fund Management (Beijing) Co., Ltd.) to conduct a research. Ho Yuewen, Assistant General Manager of China Nuclear Investment and General Manager of China Nuclear New Energy Investment Co., Ltd., participated in the research. Wu Ning, director and general manager of the Fund, introduced the company's development history, main performance and business development.

Zhao Yixin gave full recognition to the company's achievements, and put forward requirements for follow-up work. He said that, first, as a shareholder, China Nuclear Investment will fully support the fund and at the same time hope that the company will further standardize governance, strengthen information communication with shareholders, play a good role in the board of directors and shareholders' meeting leadership; Second, the company should strengthen strategic planning, create conditions for sustainable development and carry out in-depth cooperation with China-nuclear investment in strategic emerging industries investment, nuclear technology industry cultivation; Third, sound operation, strict control of risk, in the consolidation of existing business results on the basis of further enhance the project, talent pool, and continuously enhance the platform development of endogenous power.