

Zhao Yixin, chairman of board of directors, participated in the "Entrepreneurs in Ningxia" event

On August 6, 2020, Mr. Zhao Yixin, Chairman of the Board of Directors of China Nuclear Energy Technology Corporation Ltd., was invited to participate in the "Entrepreneurs in Ningxia" event hosted by the Ningxia Autonomous Region Commerce Department, which aims to fully tap the investment potential and seek common development of Ningxia Autonomous Region through inspection and discussion. A total of more than ten business leaders participated in the event.

In a meeting with entrepreneurs, the vice chairman of Ningxia Autonomous Region, Lai Wei, said that Ningxia has energy resources enrichment, low cost factors, convenient transportation conditions and other advantages with good resource conditions, industrial development base of modern agriculture, new energy, new materials, equipment manufacturing, biomedicine, modern services and other key industries are accelerating. She wants to join hands with all parties to visit enterprises, seize development opportunities and seek common development plans. Zhao Yixin said that Ningxia seizes the strategic opportunities of the western development and vigorously promotes high-quality economic and social development beyond expectations. On the basis of good cooperation between other brother units of China Nuclear Group and Ningxia, China Nuclear Investment looks forward to focusing on nuclear technology with Ningxia in key areas such as agricultural product preservation and sterilization, product tracing, environmental protection water, high-tech enterprise incubation, and further developing ideas to exert the advantages of resources of both sides.